Why should someone sponsor?

1. Direct Access to Qualified Decision-Makers

This event brings together defense manufacturers, prime contractors, government representatives, and supply chain leaders in one room. Sponsorship gives you meaningful exposure to the exact audience actively seeking partnerships, solutions, and new business relationships.

2. Strategic Brand Positioning

Align your organization with innovation, national defense readiness, and advanced manufacturing. Sponsoring demonstrates leadership and commitment to strengthening the defense supply chain. Position your brand as a serious, trusted industry partner.

3. Measurable Business Development Opportunities

Through networking and programming visibility, sponsors gain more than logo placement. You will gain real conversations that can lead to contracts, collaborations, and long-term pipeline growth.
